Brad Wike grew up in the South. Like Robb, Brad became fascinated with big rigs as a small child. His love of American trucks only grew deeper, and in his teen years, he started working at a trucking company. At the age of 21, Brad bought his first big rig - a 1980 GMC Astro Cab Over, and he hit-the-road! Brad has been a trucker ever since. He has operated a successful trucking company, BPW Transport, since 1990. His truck obsession led him to collecting semi's and then featuring them on his website. His "Brad's classic trucks" videos were the stuff of legend for fellow semi fans (including Robb)! Brad further branched out and began hosting his own truck show and 2022 will be the 20th Anniversary of "The Southern Classic Truck Show." In 2011, Robb featured Brad on American Trucker, and they have been "playing trucks" ever since! Brad has acquired over 60 vintage big rigs, and sold countless trucks to clients all over the world! Brad owns some very famous "Hollywood" trucks and has been featured in many industry leading magazines, and he was on American Trucker with Robb – twice! He is a world famous truck enthusiast and collector. Together with Robb, they have set out to unlock transportation history at every level investigating what is behind all of the Smoke and Mirrors and Semi Freaks is their headquarters!
